

It's Donation Time
By Norma Hickox

Tris needs our help this Christmas Time,
If you can't give, that's not a crime.
But if you can spare a buck or two,
That's something you might want to do.
It's Donation Time my friends, Donation Time

This site needs our help, my friends.
It's on us all that Tris depends,
He does what he can and has for years,
Can you give up a couple of beers?
It's Donation Time my friends, Donation Time

Do without Starbucks once a month,
Or, heaven forbid, maybe skip one lunch.
Christmas is a time of giving to others,
Consider this site as one of your brothers.
It's Donation Time my friends, Donation Time

Esoteric Online is like your family,
What other place would you rather be?
When you need help with a problem or two,
This site is here to help you through.
It's Donation Time my friends, Donation Time

This is a bad time of year, as far as money,
Let's help things look bright and sunny,
Make this a great Christmas for Tris,
"Give up a dollar or two," is my wish.
It's Donation Time my friends, Donation Time

With thirteen thousand members here,
Can't we try to spread some cheer?
The bills pile up each month for this site,
Let's all help keep its future bright.
It's Donation Time my friends, Donation Time

Ah come on, donate a little!
